Oh, they care - look at the linked thread. It was comparable to watching chimpanzees start going apeshit.

HRURR WUT DAFEND DA MODS HONOR LOALRRRIHGG

I agree with you though, this thread has been incredibly amusing. It's like gardening. If you plant the right seed, and nurture it just enough, you'll get bees to come pollinate the plants and they'll continue growing more. Except in this case, the thread attracted a bunch of shitty hornets that can't sting anything.
