Whoops - looks like you're still driving down Dipshit Drive. Nobody cares, that's why they registered/logged in to accounts just to reply here! Shit, when someone doesn't care, they show it by doing everything they can to post fifty replies over two days! You seem incapable of understanding what "don't care" means.

If they didn't care, they wouldn't have registered/logged in and posted. They wouldn't have posted many times over the course of this thread. They wouldn't have gone on TS and whined about me. They got trolled and tried to pass it off. You got trolled and are trying to pass it off. You cannot seriously be this dense.
