- 1) Picture of Wallywood... WTF? Disturbing. Hands off your junk.

 - 2) BHP didn't move domains because of my alleged "shenanigans". These "shenanigans" are the result of the way they moved domains. I hosted their site and paid for multiple domains out of my own pocket for years with no expectation of reciprocity. And one day they just up and left without so much as a "thanks for hosting us, but...". It was extremely rude and disrespectful. Kinda like meatspin. See how that works?

 - 3) Pineapple.
