Quote:why would it creep you out lol.. be real if ppl did not want to be known or found they would not put link's to fb ect and or reply to me on such sites ?

That's true. But, you are going further, just to give a small example when it can come to you, other people and social media.

•hmmm msn chat
(Name of a person@live.nl)

lol the info I have gatherd will be passed on to all in ban list and av on youtube videos and other sites

It's not just you contacting us. You are also capable of involving people from our personal lives into your Renegade shit problems if you don't like how things are working out for you. It's not weird that I say that you, using social media, creeps me out, right?

Quote:was also funny to see the only one person from with in renegade in his friends list is you know who ???

Irrelevant.

Just move on please. Play Renegade in Area54 and enjoy your life.
