We don't give up (i don't see any competition. TCW is not even close to what we are trying to do), we want to show that us have imagination and don't just copy all of C&C 3. We are just getting started.

In short time we will get a campaign.

ps: this intro is a joke about TCW's intro. In next days this will be changed with a more simple intro.

Well what's the point of your mod then? TCW doesn't have to use their imagination because they don't need to make things up. They are just making a mod based on another game. So if you want to say that they lack imagination then I want to say that your imagination is lame because C&C 3 is great, and all I've seen your mod do is ruin it. And yes you are competing because I read the topic description before you removed it.
