LOL Well put.

StJohn Gumby wrote on Tue, 31 July 2012 18:33 I would just like to apologise to Crimson and everyone at Renforums that something that started at Area54 spilled over into this thread.

Unfortunately no one at Area54 had the sense to ban MDK before this got out of hand.

Gumby I know you and you are a good guy. I hate seeing you in any of this. I know why I am here. But not sure what you are apologizing for though, DJ - MDK not sure. But these two have been all over these forums for a long time asking to be the brunt of everyone's jokes. Lord knows I had my fill of them at a dif comm we will not mention. The pics MDK posted were wrong which is why I replied not to post anymore. Sure I added a joke to it, but its DJ and MDK, I can't resist. So again, you want to apologize to Crimson, I'll give you that one, but us on the forums...nah. If you could make both of them go away, you will be everyone's hero.
