I was really excited to see if they could make Dr.Thrax into an awesome villian.

It's too bad they can't make any sort of storyline that lives up to those in the originals. So I am okay with being diappointed now instead of later when they royally fuck up their own storyline.

As a bonus, here are my favorite parts of the different C&C storylines so far:

- Killing off the major characters. CABAL, mobius, anyone from TS/FS offscreen
 - Making the entire scrin ~vanish~ in the prime of their invasion.
 - Forgetting about the mutants.
 - The Tiberium properties retcon in C&C 3. No longer makes awesome alien life and environments.
 - Red alert 2 never happened.
 - Yuri's Revenge never happened.
 - Einstein is dead, but chrono technology still exists somehow, while nukes vanished.
