I like the fact that Iran finds these bugs and even patches them or tells the TT team so they can patch them.

Ya he uses it in a public server, but it's not like he does it multiple times. It's for shits and giggles for him but in the end, it gets fixed.

A hack is a hack is a hack. Handing that shit out like candy to players is the same thing as what 0x90 does.
Banned from a server he doesn't play...interestingly enough he did play there and missiondm.
Oh, and patched, thanks to reb00b.
