You dug yourself a bigger hole, If you just took a step back, started chilling out. Then maybe just maybe, in a few short months Jelly would allow you back.

But first you've got to prove to everyone that you can indeed be the good guy and stop posting crap.

not sure where ppl get that I want back in to jelly ? I never played there much anyways and at no point have asked to be unbanned.

my point of posting the above post is to show why they banned me .

charlie like to make out he banned me for my attitude . fact is there was no trouble in jelly ever and they only banned me one week after wilo messaged me the above message .

as for chilling and stop posting crap now wheres the fun in that ?
