fucking lmao

if they're the best ever, why did i shit on many of them over the years? i'm not a pro clanwars player, i'm just some regular public noob they excel 100% in small games, where they practice and have played for years the bigger the game, however, the less of an impact they actually make if clanwars players are the best ever, why has cw.cc lost community matches on multiple occasions?
