mikey will never get caught again to many trust the fact he was a mod. and he has lots of buddies who are mods so he is kinda safe to play get a 180-12 k/d snipeing with out 4.0 and not even be looked at or tested .

would be shocked to see maybe once half way throu some one haveing over 60 kills to be asked to come in tuns for a test ..wonder if he would leave game or not ?
