I mean, I feel that Jelly would have died years ago if we were doing so much wrong.

Nah, instead, we've gotten rid of MDK, DJEYEK, G1D, etc.

And nobody is complaining.
Sorrow62's topic on Jello forums, enough said.

When a player joins any server and asks about a rule, moderators usually quote the rules and answer any questions. (like they're supposed to do) If a moderator replied with "kiss my arse" - they'd be disciplined tbh. I'd make sure of it (at TmX)

She was asking a question and she got shot down. I'm sure she'll have better luck elsewhere.

Perhaps there's another reason why players are now filling up RenCorner, maybe just maybe the lack of moderator control at Jelly actually pisses some players off. Animoski is actually on hand a lot and I've seen myself that he fixes mistakes by his moderators. Maybe administrators at Jelly should be on the players side, instead of the staff.

woandre actually makes some valid points in that topic and no one answers him directly. Crypt is the only moderator at jelly in that thread that attempts to give a reasonable response.

Flamingunz should at least apologize for not handling the situation better, but alas it may be too late and it looks like you've lost a player. In my eyes that obviously proves the situation was handled wrong.

althou I agree with most of what you said and I did say most not all. I find some of what you said to be total bs .
tmx is just as bad if not worse .

it can and do's become the same at all servers . if you have a problem with one mod you have a problem with all mods and staff where also the buddy asskisswanabemod group also join in or back them up .
