also in the thread one of the admins replies that "everyone on renegade wants you to kill yourself, mdk" or something like that

cool admins

wow I never even seen that ? did he really say that ? I never had chance to view as it was gone so fast.

yeah, he posted the full logs of it with his comments at the end nice...shit I wish I had the full log ..

all started when some one got a lucky hs on eye (hugging) he instantly started with his rant . I almost fell out of my chair with laughter to the point where your belly hurts.

I have lost count of the times he raged once some one killed him ..even once in storm seen him ban a guy on the spot for hax ? I was right there the guy shoot him with apc on hill in houglass and it was a clean kill . but he raged and once the guy answered back he banned him and created a coverup in forums saying the player had *cheat name removed*or something ..

still can not get my head round why servers ever made him a mod or admin as his rage history goes way back to Rencom .
