Hitman wrote on Fri, 28 September 2012 10:31it was 2v2, for the 5th time...(with neither of the 2 other players doing anything) so you lied when you said it was 1v1, gj idiot when the map started there were two of you on gdi and me alone on nod, end of story... lie all you want, edit all the ss's you want, facts are what they are

Quote:i wouldn't really call it lieing i would

Quote:i simply put up a screenshot to show what the consequences can be that u slip up once in a 1v1, or 2v2 (whatever u want), i might of phrased it wrong, should of put '1v1 situation' what i meant is the outcome would of been the same, my 'partner' didnt keep you from getting the maximum possible with your engineer, after u buy that flamer and i kill you and take it, if it were an actual 1v1, it would of been exactly the same, that's what i meant firstly, idiot, if it was an actual 1v1 it would not be on wallsfly secondly, why are you so fucking stupid that you don't realise what a MASSIVE advantage you had having the second guy in the game with you? you can't be this dumb, seriously? i mean you're fucking dumb, but you're not THAT fucking dumb.
thirdly, what does it matter whether i got my c4s off as nod? you think that means the nod player's got the advantage on wallsfly?

Quote:i dont want to play 1v1's i know you dont, you had plenty of opportunity to play a fair 1v1 on a balanced map and you rejected it, instead you smurf in public servers and post edited ss's from a 2v1 on the most unbalanced map+side and lie about what happened, saying it was a 1v1 loki and jblforce > you

Quote:i was argueing about how stupid they were, actually so why'd you post an edited ss from a game that was not a 1v1 on a map nobody plays 1v1 on? idiot

"hi, sniper servers are gay, and to prove it heres what happened in a cops and robbers game yesterday"

Quote:and i was trying to make my point showing how stupid it is that i can just chill in your base, u can get off 400 and i'll just be standing there waiting for you to buy a vehicle, then steal it and kill your base, 1v1's generally come down to those type of things, if not, it comes down to lag, spawns, boxes... and there's offcourse no teamplay, which i think this game was designed for, because of the simple fact that u are the team if you'd had the balls to play me in a proper 1v1 - field, that is- would you blame the loss on "lag, spawns and boxes" i wonder?

Quote:btw, dont pretend u basically gave up in the beginning when u saw it was '2v1', u were playing random noob wolly213(didnt know it was me untill after) and some other public guy, u thought u were going to win, just admit it already instead of acting like u were playing simpee and kill 2v1 and therefor gave up before even moving out the first time why lie again, hitman? why pretend i said things i did not say? i didn't say i gave up, i said the game was already decided. 2 gdi vs 1 nod wallsfly? yes, the game was decided, but i was at least gonna play. maybe someone would join my team. if i knew what a massive bitch you were gonna be about this, posting edited ss's and totally fucking lying about what happened cos your renesteem is so low that you need to boast about winning a 2v1 as gdi wallsfly (my god), maybe i should've done what you probably would have done and left when i saw i was nod in a 1v2, eh? except unlike you i'm not such a little bitch
