I don't think we can do more then a link to the XWIS website.
In order to make a page with full functionality, we'd need to link to the XWIS systems/forums, so unless we can cooperate with them or if they'd make it, there isn't much more we can do.
Also, is it still the case that those pages require that document prefix to work or has TT changed/removed that behavior?

Prefix in question was:
<!-- Certified Westwood Studios -->

On a sidenote: I would be interested in helping out if needed
