I hate to be a bust, but your maps need some Serious fixing. do blending , do something! Make them look like real buildings. and that light tank scares me, I love this game, But i could go play the original version which i still have. Yours just looks like a funnier verison.

I don't mean to sound harsh, but give the light tank more curves, don't make it blocky like the n64 one. Make it feel more real.

P.S make your own medium tanks, and make the skins more alive.

P.P.S i didn't mean to be mean, but this mod needs some teaking.
