liquidv2 wrote on Fri, 12 October 2012 12:25why can't Iran view your forums? why's he different from everyone else lol

The guy comes off as a douchebag to me, and consistently likes linking our forums here (which cause of the drama around here, i've wanted to avoid) just to point and laugh at it.

I do not think he is targeting you ani like lots of us shitard is the target and the joke .

kinda like if you made -dj-rage-k a admin we would also target him.
the fact me and others link to your forums is that is where sitard hides ..

I would look at it this way it is all great advertising and even brings in new forum clicks or members ..

even my first topic at the start maybe got some players over there to just take a look and once they come in to look they may even like what they see and stay ..

like owning a store or bar it's all about getting them in the door ..so to speak
