I had no hand in liams actions he was a even worse troll and moaner than I was ... maybe the poor kid is in the same state of mind or position as me where people are saying or doing the same things to him that you seem totally harmless and not abusive but to him could mean the worst insults or remarks in the world...

he says he is a subject of bullies in school and at the same time says that ppl in ts or game ..minecraft.. are bullying him also .. and you reaction is to take away his mod because he gets upsett about it .. you are at fault for not taking action against those people that are bullying him and guys like you will be to blame if some poor kid takes his own life after something you could have stopped...your the admin you are in charge you have the power to stop the bullie groups that form to target one person ..who then becomes the target if they cry out for a little help
