Ani wrote on Tue, 16 October 2012 09:08It's well known what my history is, at least I don't run or hide from it. Why else would I try to get unbanned from Jelly even if I have my own server to play at? lol yeah right... cool story bro . your a past cheater who also stole other ppls ideas and passed them of as your own . who ranaway from renegade for a time then came back with his own server . and now thinks he has a clean slate. why would jelly un ban you ? they know that you or your ex-storm team are attacking them they just have no proof yet. and unlike me are worried about saying it in a open forum with out the said proof..

next you reply with ..it,s not me why would I .it could be you even I have seen when ultra and jelly crash that lots of players migrate to rencorner .

and again I have a feeling we will come back to this post where I get to say I TOLD YOU SO
