About a week or so. I'm not saying anything definate because usually it ends up like this:

"Ok I should have it tomorrow!"
"#(%&*#% SCRIPT WONT WORK! It's coded EXACTLY the way it's supposed to be!! Why doesn't it work???"
5 days later
"Ok........finally fix it........to make up for that I'll add something extra and simple to make people happier"
"#%*#(% WONT WORK!!!!!!"

rinse and repeat.......
