liquidv2 wrote on Wed, 13 March 2013 12:47i don't think it's fair to lump Orca in with troopr02; he was nowhere near that bad

what i don't get is why AnThRaX continues to push at Spooky when Spooky easily deflects it every single time; at some point AnThRaX should realize he's wrong, but he has a bit of derfcow in him and continues to push on anyways

Hop off spooky's dick for just one second and show me one argument spooky has ever lost on a forum against another person. It's never happened because the guy is literally smarter than Einstein. What did he even deflect? My question as to where he's lost a debate? What the fuck he didn't even answer it. Either your bias against me is blinding you or your nose is so far up his ass you can't even understand what's going on like usual. The fact that Spooky thinks even one person here gives a shit how right he thinks he is about everything is god damn hilarious to me. The guy has to be over 30 years old and the only achievements in his life come from keyboard warring internet debates and declaring himself the winner when his opponent decides to be the first one to see sunlight.

Liquid here's an example of what just happened so you can catch on:

I asked Spooky to provide me one example of where he's ever lost an argument on a gaming forum .. (it's never happened, literally), I didn't use exactly the right wording so he said some retarded random bullshit. When he realized he couldn't respond and figured out he's a self righteous dickhead but didn't want to admit it to himself, (once again) he turned it back on me and made up some shit about being a hypocrite (not related to anything but some of his favorite things to call people who don't agree with him). He told me he could provide many examples but those were the first two off the top of his head, when I tweaked the question slightly it immediately became my job to find topics where he was proven wrong because once again we both know self righteous prick has never lost an argument and even he couldn't find an example even after telling me that those were the first two examples. (Talk about a hypocrite) I'd rather talk to a wall than watch spooky inflate his own ego. The fact that people like you liquid even stroke it for him is beyond pathetic. It must be because of your personal bias against me because no normal person could ever stoop to that level.

ljbh Spooky has lost more arguments than he's won he just keeps his composure and eventually the other person commits suicide out of boredom after being called a hypocrite, a cretin, a waste of space and a disgrace and whatever fancy intellectual insults spooky can throw your way to make himself seem classy and shit.

btw liquid you're a fucking clone of Spooky and use his same argumentive style which is why you always get your way in communities and eventually no one opposes you, you obviously print his picture off and frame them on your wall. between the two of you the social awkwardness must be unbearable, you should probably meet up and discuss what the weathers like sometime, it could clearly be turned into a two hour debate about whether or not it was sunny or not and what the definition of a temperature is. derfcow might not be the most intelligent mother fucker but im sure he at least has an actual sense of reality and doesn't need this forum to feel like he has some sort of meaning in his life. this might seem like ad hominem but seriously just take a step back and look at yourselves.
