Yes I headshot him (about 50 hp damage or so?) and then body shot him once.

i never have that issue with youtube, maybe get better internet?

So yeah what you're seeing here is a guy trying pretty well to dodge (compared to the average jelly or MPF player) just getting destroyed by me on this laggy server. because of his 170~ ping he has a hard time shooting me, but I'm also having a hard time shooting him.

I'll see if i can get a snipe video of me at the front of GDI base on islands with me just killing players left and right like I did on MPF a few days before I got banned, where Hunter-Seeker was invisihugging me from wf door cause he couldn't keep up i have played with >100 ping, but not often i played this Chad guy last night and the results were similar (until Rambo6 joined on his team and camped in a turret the whole time) the thing that was odd about the headshot-bodyshot-dead thing was him dying, falling dead, and his body completely disappearing all in the exact same second i checked my dl speed when the video started bugging out, and i was pulling close to 30 mbps download speed - YouTube might not be capped or something in your country, but it doesn't cooperate very well in America not surprising that Hunter-Seeker would try to glitch snipe you; he's a known cheater lol
