crusaderz wrote on Fri, 23 August 2013 01:54hi, i'm trying to figure out how to play renegade online consistently! I used to play a lot.

I torrented Renegade. I downloaded TT and renlist. It took some time, but yesterday I managed to get servers to show up on renlist's gamespy tab and I managed to join a game

Today, I tried to join a Renegade game and no servers are showing up on the gamespy list. I don't think I did anything different from what I did yesterday.

Should I just set up a WOL account? is that the way to get access to the MOST servers? or are there only gamespy servers and I shouldn't even worry about WOL?

Thanks to anyone for helping. I'm Renz0rBiH, I used to be part of the ccfan clan and my brother's RAGame. I can't wait to get my renegade game on again WOL is still online, but I think there are few servers elusively WOL or GSA these days. Although I'm unsure why GSA isn't working now, it should work and present a server list.
