if they rape too hard then i'll need to change things, all the numbers are just baselines, they arent set in stone

Also flamers in narrow corridors where you cant escape them? doomed.

though again, cant be sure, i really dont know what will happen, my guess is it depends on who has the best orca/apache pilots and the tunnel you see the SBH standing in front of can fit 3 mammys and a humvee side by side, with no room for anything else to get past.
