i wanted that place up the top to be somewhere snipers could go. otherwise whats the point in it?

I understand you may not agree with some stuff, and I might actually agree with you on raised points, but only after the map has actually been played on, theres no point discussing balance stuff until then really.

and yea liq you may be right on the changes for stock maps vs this map, but we just dont know needs to be played. and then we can say "well that was a bad idea doing x" lol
