Id agree more if it was full of sakura's or havocs with ramjets, but since there wont be ramjets, 500 snipers are much less noob friendly.

in my limited experiance of sniping and sitting next to snipers/listening to global/team chat its much less likely for a noob sniper to have a black hand sniper or a deadeye, and most of the actually good snipers seem to actually prefer the 500 sniper anyway but are forced to use ramjets because they are op to the max and a random noob in his first day on ren can use one and click on you and you lose a million hp. lol.
