when i first learned about government corruption whatever area of it may be my first drive was to wake others but i eventually got to the point of what's the use? The american propaganda is so sophisticated in comparison to older ones we see in history like Hitlers Germany.

If you actually look learn about what happened in German politics from roughly 1932 to 1939, you'll notice ALOT of similarities to whats been happening in american politics between roughly 2001 to 2013(now) Can we learn from history and see where we might be going?

Just saying... =) Obama appeared so promising on his run, change!! we were at war in two countries when he ran on the promise of bring the troops back, 5 years later.. how many countries are we at war in now? 6? he's taken more freedoms away and added more taxes? and we still beleive in him? how did this happen lol
