You're serious? In that case, start linking from places that aren't right-wing bubbles. I mean, you did know that TheBlaze is Glenn Beck's mouthpiece, right? And I'm sure you knew that NewsMax is just another site that goes LOLBERAL MEDIA BIASES!!1 without any actual proof of it, so anything else they say is suspect at best. Let's try somewhere like... I don't know, Slate. Slate's a bit slanted in the liberal direction, but the CBO numbers don't lie.

/Also, you don't even live here lol

//Why aren't you getting your news from reputable sources?

///Also, you live in Netherlands don't you? You want our country to have shitty healthcare that isn't like yours? DOES NOT COMPUTE
