It crashes after you hit continue on this screen, so I guess technically it might be the start of level 2 (just did it on my main computer again, which doesn't have any mods, just stock ren and 4.1) I'll test again on hard. As a note I think it crashes right when it tries to play the movie, so if you have those disabled that might be hiding the issue.

Oh and another crash dump from the main computer this time:
