Yeah that map looks pretty bad.

Kaskins is a real nice guy, I just don't get the ideas behind his maps.
I think some of his maps would be pretty nice if he got rid of all the crazy stuff he puts in them.

I also think it is a bad idea changing munitions on stock ren vehicles, and if you want to add new vehicles to a map you should just do a new set; certainly not add more vehicles than people can keep track of.

But that is just an opinion.
