lol if you actually knew what happened behind the scenes in your own community.

i think you and liquid are the only ones that care if i use anything in jelly so the only thing i'm banned from is logging into my forum name. must be a fun lifestyle holding internet grudges forever. the butt hurt is so immense i actually pity you.

banned permanently from the entire company because of a fight i had with a stalker in a single IRC channel and asking liquid to settle it before i had to do anything on my own. what clowns.
