No that's perfectly not creepy at all, has anyone ever told you how much you look like your dad? What the actual fuck is wrong with you?

Also I never asked Tanker to do what he did, he just did. I don't really know what you guys are referring to other than he would paste me some posts once in a while and I thought it was funny. Not like six other mods don't do the same thing for me now. Not like mods haven't given me VPNs and exceptions, I can play renegade in jelly anytime I want it's just boring being anonymous lol. Don't let me back in, fine, I just was seeing if you actually would but the e-grudge is real.
