Question got answered, now you can go on and troll somewhere else n00bies

You are such a loser dude. "Got my question answered" LMAOROF. May as well post na-na-nah-na-na. You're like 30 something? You act a 12 year old still in diapers. Like I said, denial and now rage. Proof mommy, I want proof! Who says we have to show you anything?

We know the facts:

You didn't start playing this until 2009 or 2010 years after its best days. It killed you that you didn't have the skills of players that started this in Demo days. You seem to think excellence in this game is some kind of life status for you. You seem to think you made a name for yourself like the real pro players of the game, but all you did was create a loser - beat on me name. I guess your real life sucks so bad, this is all you have. I feel sorry for you DJ and that you had to cheat, probably for a long time now, (caught by two different communities), to achieve the inner self worth you so crave. Truly sad. Maybe you are a candidate for Dr. Phil now, may want to contact the show. lol

Do yourself a favor and GTFO and never post again anywhere. You never had anything in this game and now your done by self infliction.
