DJ you so cry a lot. You so react to my posts. You spit on your computer when you type replies?
lol

My how I have so effected your life. Yeah all my fault you cheated. All my fault no one liked you at any of the com's except your German buds. You blame me for so much LOL when in reality it was all you and very little me.

Area54, you want to bring that up again?? But DJ you are so skilled how could you have run into someones Apache? Your a douche dude, you IPDB'd in IRC (like you did every player because you watched IRC admin channels while you were in game) and thought it was me based on the results. (I know because I saw the IRC admin logs) So with your new mod power surging that Padi gave you and with the hate you have for me, you came after what you thought was me and ended up making a fool of yourself as always. Once Padi came back and realized his mistake giving you power, he removed you. Yep all my fault again. My fault on you getting removed at St0rm (3 times) and MPF ( I believe 3 times as well).

Blame me for all the fails you have with women and life in general too dude?

Lastly you want to run on ACK's shirt tail thats your mistake. He makes shit up to try to get at me, which has failed miserably on each try as your efforts do too. Get over the fact I was liked - respected and asked to be an admin at several communities since 2002 and you had to stick your nose up owners asses to get the few positions you got since you started ren in 2008, well after its best days.
