Clearsh0t sounded like a 40 year old virgin there's no way that guy could be a good leader cause his voice couldn't be taken seriously. Spooky was a really good leader/ strategist but not actually too good at the technical aspects of the game like sniping and tank battles and pistoling and the other concepts that separate you from your peers. Tell Mike I am better than him at counterstrike even though he has 3000 hours played and I have 300. Advise him to go outside occasionally. C4packer made a great informative video on how to do so.
