When I saw spoony in game, I stayed in base the little sneaky fuk. So many times on Field you were hear out of nowhere "Nod Airstrip Destroyed" and it was spoony sneaking in again.

When I saw Hitman in game, I stayed in a vehicle or I know I would die from his sniper rifle.

You both are/were all around elite players and Liquid was right you made us work.

OMG funny Liquid said that = even today they still flock to Jez to rep him. I seriously think he pays or brings someone with him. lol
