npsmith82Havoc_elitels it me or are the new daily posts getting lower by the day? It seems like all members are slowly disappearing.

Yeah maybe i've noticed it too, may have something to do with the cheats or schools starting again, but who knows.

Although saying that, my bet is that there's still many people who are like me - browse the forums every day to see what's new, but very rarely post. If anything concerns me, then i will always reply.

What he said, if the post interest me, ill input my 2 cents.

Guess you caught my eye
