Erm here is a typical case of ACK being a dickhead.

1) Carbon-Kid/sjezk3 never plays in the pitts for the simple reason being is its crap, laggy and hard to join in the first place.

2) He does not cheat, the only times he has cheated have been in his own or my server to see what the cheats do.

3) Halo38 is not related to carbon-kid in any way.

I know this because Carbon-kid is my best friend and halo38 is also a good mate of mine.

So please get your facts right before you start opening your stupid mouth.
