Quote:That's a really, really stupid question. Well, of course we're going to do weapon models. But obviously they're not as important as the other aspects of the mod right now.

I dont think its a stupid question to ask. I would think that if they were going to release lots of new vehicle models, structure models, and character models in an early release, that they would also include at least one or two new weapon models Because they didn't (at least not yet), you kind of start to wonder.
