You mean Renegade isn't what life is all about? Hmm.

*Thank you for the update, Blazer. And no one (hopefully) is blaming your bumped back schedule due to these issues. My last post was brought up ONLY because nothing was spoken of. If there was something posted in the forums or on the site like this a few days ago my thread would have never existed.

I know exactly how you feel as I am in a very simliar situation.

Good luck to all on your exams!
