I have a question. In Reloaded, when they were at the french guys place(arovigian, or sumthing like that), It showed neo seeing everything like the computer screens on their ship. Does he see like this all the time?

I saw the full trailer for reanimation at the theatre, and I think this movie looks sick! And by sick I mean totaly fucking insane! I can't wait to see this movie, I'll be there to see it the first day it comes out.
