Black-Cell.net admins pay 149 dollars a month for BCServ4, they spend endless hours improving DragonServ, you join their server and waste their 750gb a month bandwidth yet you do NOTHING for the server. You piss off a moderator, break a rule, she kicks you from the server join you were on for free. Now, don't ignore the fact the hours that moderator donates to that server. Unless you help pay for that server you have ZERO rights in decision making. And don't tell me anything different. Do you pay taxes to your town/state/country? Yes. What would happen if you didn't? You'd get "kicked" from the country.

If anything you should be kissing the feet of the server owners.
People like that disgust me. Give them something for free and they whine that it isn't good or fair enough, no better than a spoiled brat of a kid.
