Hypocrisy:

The practice of professing beliefs, feelings, or virtues that one does not hold or possess; falseness.

Quote:If you can't express yourself maturely (which you are apparently admitting here) then what other possible gauge is there, especially when all we see of you is your typing?

Using the definition given above, please show me how it's hypocritical.

So let me get this straight... to act immature (at times) is to be mature... kind of contradictory, no? How mature is it (halloween theme here) to throw eggs at a house?

And as for working the week out, or leaving that instant, it's all up to the employer/company (which is why most firings happen on a friday). I still don't see how that implies that "they must have been sick of (her) upity little bitch attitude and wanted to get rid of (her) ASAP"
