Hey all....My gsa name is Cpax...and I just registered on The Official Renegade Forums I've been playing renegade for about 2 years now and I've visited this forum a few times but never really got involved I was looking at it today and I just want to say the people who created this forum have done an excellent job! The link to the renegade forums should be posted more often in the lobby...there are a lot of players who would like to have a say in the community! I've been away for a month and I've missed a lot....what is going on with RenGuard?Could someone plz explain this to me... This really isnt my buisness but I was reading the posts between Crimson and FI00d...from what both of you say you want the Renegade Community too come together....by argueing aren't you 2 tearing the Renegade Community up? Not saying that as an insult, but the real truth is cheating is half the reason Renegade is "dying"(Some agree that Renegade is dying, some don't). The other half is the fighting! Well thats just a topic to bring up another day:D I just want to say that the cheating has increased dramatically when I came back...but I've noticed ever since the Anti Cheats came out the amount of cheaters in games have dropped....Just want to say has anyone every visited WOL lately?Whoa!Loads of cheaters!

Alright I said what I wanted to
