You know, I've been on irc awhile now, and over the time, I have seen some really fucked up shit. This would just have to be a case of somewhat weird.

I might be naked sometimes, but not when killing people on a first person shooter game, thats just a bit too much weird.

And I've heard of people falling in love on chat, but on a game forum??
You two must live in some somewhat isolated lives.

BTW BLazer, that apperas to be an unzipped bag, your old eyes are failing you
