I stayed the night at my friend's house to go see Revolutions today. Well he owns the Animatrix and decided to show me two things on it. Reniassance I and Reniassance II. Well these were made by the W..I forgot how to spell their name, but anywho it was made by them and animated by some guy. Well there are three big ass loop holes in it that actually destroy the possiblity of the first Matrix movie being made. I wil lstate them if anyone is curious but I won't until then. It will destroy your liking of the Matrix.
