For once I overestimate something. (The beta version is finished, I'll upload it somewhere tommorow) The C-130 in the map now has an interior, I also beefed up the rocket launcher so each rocket is 40% faster, and does twice as much damage, but needs to reload each shot. I'm also exploring the possibility of a "cockpit" of an aircraft doing more damage in the same fassion of a headshot of a sniper rifle.
