I realize this thread is about revolutions, but I didn't want to start another "Matrix" thread just to point out this trivia. Here goes. In Reloaded, when Trinity goes in to shut down the aux. power (not at the beginning in Neo's vision, but later when it actually happens) the guards are clocking out (shift change) and the guard behind the desk kicked back, half asleep. The one clocking out says to the other something like "You can sleep on your own time", and the other says "Why, I get paid to do it here". Anyway, I'm about 99.99% sure that the sleeping guard is none other than Bill Pope, the director of photography for all three films, though I checked and he's not credited. Just wondered if anyone else noticed this.
