I am currently thinking of opening a CS server adn know a lot of people here play it and would like to get an idea of some maps people would like to play..... i have about 150+ maps prob more around the 220 250 line so i prob have most anything you can think of. Here is the rotation i was thinking of please drop me a line of what u think or ideas on maps to take out and add in. Max of 12 maps in rotation though.

If i run one ill most likely start it up when i get back from vacation. If i cant run it 24/7 ill most defitly run it from 5:30am - 1:00pm or 5:00 pm every weekend and try to get something started like fan map night but for us cs mappers.
