Quote:the worst part is when ou're trying to shoot at an enemy unit and some bozo is messing with your turret, so you naturally tell him toi get out....and he doesn't...and there's that f#%^&(g anti-message-flood thing so you can only say it so muh...and then you lose your tank. ARRGH i hate noobs

This is not a problem you tell them to get out once and if they don't you hit Q

The real problems are when they screw up your controls because of the bug or when you get out to repair and they decide to jump out and in to get to drive, however a kick/ban usually sorts out both of these problems.
